Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Willis Lease Finance Corporation (the “Company”) previously announced that its Board of Directors (the “Board”) had formed an independent committee (the “Independent Committee”) to review and evaluate, and negotiate with Charles F. Willis, IV, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board (individually and together with an entity controlled by him), and Austin C. Willis, the Company’s Senior Vice President of Corporate Development and a Board member (collectively, the “Group”), the Group’s proposed acquisition of all the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company not already owned by the Group (the “Transaction”). On August 10, 2021, the Group delivered a notice of withdrawal to the Board, notifying the Company that it was withdrawing its proposal for a Transaction and that it had mutually agreed with the Independent Committee to immediately terminate and abandon any further discussions regarding a potential Transaction.
